The Club Member or Associate Member (as the case may be) may also, in this document, confirm any voting instructions which have been given to the representative.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

43. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present. A quorum will be achieved if natural persons properly authorised in accordance with Article 41 above and representing in total 50 or more Club Members entitled to vote are in attendance.
44. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, the meeting shall stand adjourned to a start time of one hour later than the original time, at the same place (or at such other place as the Board may determine), and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, the representatives of the Club Members present shall constitute a quorum and shall be entitled to hold the meeting and vote on the business to be conducted thereat.
45. The Chairman of the Board (if present) or in his absence some other Director nominated by all Directors at the meeting shall preside as chairman of the meeting, but if neither the Chairman nor any Director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or being present is unwilling to act, the Club Members present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman for the meeting.
46. The chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as of the original meeting specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.

49. Any resolution put to the Members at a General Meeting shall be passed by a simple majority of the Club Members present (by a duly authorised representative) and voting at the meeting, unless the Act specifies that the resolution shall be passed as an extraordinary or special resolution in which case it shall be passed by a majority of not less than seventy-five per cent of the Club Members voting at the meeting.
50. In the case of an equality of votes the resolution being voted on will not be passed.
51. A resolution in writing executed in accordance with the Act shall be as effective as if it had been passed at a General Meeting properly convened and held and may consist of several documents in the like form signed by one or more of the Club Members.
52. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the General Meeting or adjourned General Meeting at which the vote objected is to be tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive if lawful.

COMPOSITION OF THE GOVERNING BOARD

53. The Board shall be comprised of 12 Directors, of which 7 shall be England Boxing Non-Executive Directors, 4 shall be Independent Non-Executive Directors, and one shall be the non-executive chairman.
54. All of the Directors shall be appointed on the basis that they possess skills and expertise that have been identified by the Board as desirable and necessary. The Board will consult regularly with independent experts on corporate governance to determine the relevant skills requirements and will incorporate current best practice in relation to all appointment processes including nomination and selection processes for the Independent Non-Executive Directors or non-executive chairman. These processes will include as a minimum wide advertisement of vacancies and the establishment of a selection panel to determine whether candidates have the required skills.
55. The Board shall advertise generally, and will specifically circulate to the Club Members and Associate Members details of any vacancies at Board level for England Boxing Non-Executive Directors. Details of the particular skills requirements will be made available. Each Club or Associate Member shall be entitled to nominate appropriately skilled individuals whom the Board will consider in accordance with the processes, including selection processes, determined in accordance with Article 54. In addition suitably qualified individuals who feel that they have the skills required to fulfil the role of an England Boxing Non-Executive Director (and who have the necessary membership qualification) will be encouraged to apply.
56. The England Boxing Non-Executive Directors will serve a four year term, with any individual to serve a maximum of two terms (consecutive or otherwise). England Boxing Non-Executive Directors shall carry one vote each at Board meetings. The terms of the England Boxing Non-Executive Directors will be timed so as to ensure that they will not all retire at the same time (the Company will make separate provision in this regard). The England Boxing Non-Executive Directors may concurrently hold or previously have held an executive role within a Regional Association or any related boxing association.

57. The Independent Non-Executive Directors will be appointed in accordance with Article 54 and will serve a two or four year term, as decided by the Board and agreed with the individual in question in each case. No individual shall serve as an Independent Non-Executive Director for more than eight years in total. Independent Non-Executive Directors shall carry one vote each at Board meetings.
58. The non-executive chairman shall be appointed by the Board following the same selection process as for the Independent Non-Executive Directors. They must be independent, in that they may not concurrently hold or previously have held an executive or employed role within the Company, a Regional Association or any related boxing association (for the avoidance of doubt, subject to meeting the overriding criterion of independence a past President of the Company may subsequently be appointed its Chairman, although no person may hold those posts concurrently, subject always to such a person having to go through the selection process set out above without derogation). They will serve a four year term, with no chairman to serve more than two terms (consecutive or otherwise). The chairman will have a vote at Board meetings, such vote being, in the event of a tie, a casting vote.
59. The Company will also have a chief executive officer, who shall be appointed by the Board on such terms and for such period as the Board thinks fit. The chief executive shall be accountable to the Board. The Chief Executive shall be permitted to attend and participate in discussion at Board meetings but shall not have a vote at such meetings.
- 59A. In addition to and notwithstanding the articles above relating to the composition and selection of the Board, in exceptional circumstances the Board may co-opt one or more individuals onto the Board (with such individuals thereby becoming directors), insofar as it is necessary to do so to ensure that the Board has the requisite skills and experience to discharge its duties. Such director(s) shall serve on the Board until such time as director(s) who possess the relevant skills and experience have been appointed in accordance with the articles above, subject always to a maximum four year term. For the avoidance of doubt, provided that all other requirements under these articles are met, an individual co-opted onto the Board may subsequently become an appointed director pursuant to the appointment and selection procedures set out above, in which case any time served as a co-opted director shall count towards their term of service as an appointed director.
60. The office of a Director shall be vacated:
 - (a) if they become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with their creditors generally;
 - (b) if they become of unsound mind;
 - (c) if they become prohibited from holding office by reason of any court order made under the Act;
 - (d) if by notice in hard copy form to the Board they resign their office;
 - (e) if the Board at any time resolves to terminate their appointment, such resolution requiring a 75% majority of those voting to be passed;

- (f) if the Members of the Company, at an Extraordinary General Meeting or Annual General Meeting, resolve by majority to remove them from office; or
 - (g) they cease to comply with Article 63.
61. Unless the Board resolves otherwise, any Director who shall, without sufficient reason, absent himself from three consecutive meetings of the Board, will be understood to have resigned his position as a Director.
 62. In the event of there being a temporary vacancy on the Board, the Board shall resolve to fill that vacancy as quickly as reasonably practicable, and it may continue to act in the usual way in the interim. Any person filling a Board vacancy will complete the term applicable to the vacancy he is filling, and not commence a new four or two year term. He will be available for re-election or re-appointment, subject to applicable service limits as set out in these Articles.
 63. A person shall not be eligible to be elected as a Director of the Company if that person has held any position (including as a boxer, official, coach or trainer) within, or has been affiliated to any professional boxing or professional combat sport organization (other than APB or World Series of Boxing). Such person shall not be entitled to hold any position within or be affiliated to any professional boxing or professional combat sport organization (other than APB or World Series of Boxing) for so long they hold the position of Director of the Company.
 64. The Board may invite any person whom it considers appropriate to attend a Board meeting, either as a participant or as an observer. Such a person shall not have voting rights.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD

65. The Board may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, provided that at least four such meetings shall be held in each year. The quorum for a Board meeting shall be six persons having the right to vote, save that no meeting shall be quorate if less than two Independent non-Executive Directors are present.
66. A Director may at any time summon a meeting of the Board by notice served in writing (in hard copy or by email) upon the Directors, giving not less than 21 days' notice.
67. The non-executive chairman shall chair meetings of the Board. If the chairman is unwilling or unable to preside at a meeting of the Board or is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the Directors present may appoint one of the other Independent Non-Executive Directors. That Director will not carry a casting vote.
68. A Director may participate in a meeting of the Board by way of video conferencing or conference telephone or similar equipment which allows every person participating to hear and speak to one another throughout such meeting. A person so participating shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall accordingly be counted in the quorum and be entitled to vote. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting is.

69. A meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all the authorities, powers and discretions by or under the regulations of the Company for the time being vested in the Board generally. Unless these Articles provide otherwise, questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. Voting on any issue shall be by show of hands.
70. The Board shall cause proper minutes to be made of all business transacted at Board meetings, and any such minutes of any meeting shall be put for approval to the following meeting of the Board, such approval to be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.
71. A written resolution signed by all Directors for the time being who are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board duly convened and constituted.
72. In the case of matters that are urgent and non-contentious or that only require the approval of the Board as a formality, Directors may convene and vote at a meeting by electronic mail. The outcomes of such votes shall be authoritative and shall be appended to the minutes of the previous meeting of the Board shall be formally considered at the following meeting of the Board.

POWERS OF THE BOARD

73. The strategic direction of the Company shall be determined by the Board who
 - (a) may pay all such expenses of, and preliminary and incidental to, the promotion, formation, establishment and registration of the Company as they think fit;
 - (b) will delegate day to day business to a management team led by the chief executive officer;
 - (c) may exercise all the powers of the Company; and

74. Without limiting the generality of Article 73, the Board may from time to time make, amend and replace:

- (a) such Rules, Policies and Procedures or Codes as may be required by the provisions of these Articles; and
 - (b) such other Rules, Policies and Procedures or Codes which in the opinion of the Board are necessary or desirable for the control, management and administration of the Company and of the sport of Boxing.
75. The Members may in General Meeting by ordinary resolution repeal any Rules, Policies or Procedures or Codes made by the Board without affecting the validity of any act or decision taken or made by the Board, or by any one authorised to so act or decide, pursuant to such Rules, Policies or Procedures or Codes prior to its or their repeal.
76. Any Rules, Policies or Procedures or Codes made by the Board in accordance with these Articles:
- (a) must be consistent with these Articles; and
 - (d) unless otherwise determined by the Board, shall operate with immediate effect upon being made by the Board.
77. All acts bona fide done by any meeting of the Board, or by any person acting as a member of the Board, shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the meeting or appointment or continuance in office of any such member of the Board or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office or as if there was no defect in the relevant meeting, so long as that act is made known to the Board as soon as reasonably practicable and stands unchallenged by them at the following Board meeting.

SUB-COMMITTEES AND WORKING PARTIES

78. The Board may delegate any of their powers to a specialist sub-committee consisting of such of their number and such other persons as they think fit. Each and every sub-committee must be chaired by a Director who shall report directly to the Board, to whom the sub-committee will be accountable. It will be for the Board to appoint members of each sub-committee; the Board will endeavour always to include individuals other than existing Board members to such sub-committees.
79. Any sub-committee formed pursuant to Article 78 shall, in the exercise of the powers delegated to it, conform to any regulations imposed on it by the Board. The resolution making the delegation shall if appropriate specify the financial limits within which any sub-committee shall function. The meetings and proceedings of any such sub-committee shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Board so far as possible and applicable and so far as the same shall not be superseded by any regulations made by the Board. All acts and proceedings of such sub-committees shall be reported in due course to the Board.

Any such appointment, agreement or arrangement may be made upon such terms as the Board determine and they may remunerate any such member of the Board for his services as they think fit.
82. Subject to the provisions of the Act and to the Company's conflict of interest policy, and provided that he has disclosed to the Board the nature and extent of any material interest of his, a member of the Board notwithstanding his office:

83. For the purposes of these Articles:
- (a) a general notice given to the Board that a Director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the Director has an interest in any such transaction of the nature and extent so specified; and
 - (b) an interest of which a member of the Board has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.
84. Irrespective of the above, a Director shall not take any loan from the Company.

Each person appointed to such a position of patron or honorary appointee, and each person holding such a position, must be, and remain, a fully paid up Individual Member of the Company. In addition, the Board may recommend to the Members, for approval at a General Meeting, the appointment (or removal) of a person as an Honorary Life Vice President, in accordance with Article 25. For the avoidance of doubt, any such appointments shall not be executive or non-executive Directors of the Company and shall have no rights whatsoever (including, but not limited to, voting rights) in respect of such appointment.

INDEMNITY

86. Subject to the provisions of the Act but without prejudice to any indemnity to which a Director may otherwise be entitled, every Director, Company Secretary or other officer or official of the Company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him by the Court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Company.
87. The above indemnity will not apply to any dishonest or fraudulent acts nor in respect of a breach of trust where the Director was clearly aware of his trustee obligations because he had seen so advised in writing but nevertheless chose to ignore them.

88. Subject to the provision of the Act, the Company Secretary shall be appointed by the Board for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit; and any Company Secretary so appointed may be removed by the Board. The Board may in like manner appoint an assistant or deputy Company Secretary and any person so appointed may act in place of the Company Secretary if there be no Company Secretary or no Company Secretary capable of acting.
89. A provision of the Act or these Articles requiring or authorising anything to be done by or to an executive Director or non-executive Director and the Company Secretary shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as Director and as, or in the place of, the Company Secretary.

96. A Member whose registered address is not within the United Kingdom and who gives to the Company an address within the United Kingdom at which a notice or other document may be sent to him shall be entitled to have notices or other documents sent to him at that address but otherwise no such Member shall be entitled to receive any notice or other document from the Company.
97. A notice or other document may be sent by the Company to the legal personal representative or the trustee in bankruptcy in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member by sending it, in any manner the Association may choose authorised by these Articles for the sending of a notice or other document to a Member, addressed to them by name, or by the title of representative of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt or by any similar description at the address (if any) within the United Kingdom as may be supplied for that purpose by or on behalf of the person or persons claiming to be so entitled. Until such an address has been supplied, a notice or other document may be sent in any manner in which it might have been sent if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.

98. Proof that an envelope containing a notice or other document was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the notice or document was sent. A notice or other document sent by post shall be deemed sent:

99. Following the adoption of these Articles the Company shall create a new department within the Company, to run and administer the APB programme in England. The APB department shall fall under the authority and control of the Company and the Company Chairman shall serve as its chairman.
100. The Company and each of its Members are subject to the AIBA Statutes and must always comply with the AIBA Regulations. Where there is any discrepancy between these Articles and the AIBA Regulations, the AIBA Regulations shall prevail.
101. The Company recognises BMA as the sole and exclusive promoter of the APB programme on a continental and worldwide level and shall not associate with any other promoter associated with any professional boxing or professional combat sport organization (other than APB and World Series of Boxing) for APB events on a continental or worldwide level.
