

TALENT ADMINISTRATION ASSISTANT – ENGLAND BOXING

Background

England Boxing is the National Governing Body for the one of the oldest sports in the world and one which has featured in the ancient and modern Olympics since 1904.

With its own heritage going back to 1880, and its first national championship starting in 1881, the organisation is responsible for promoting, regulating and developing the sport at all levels, from grassroots through to the England talent pathway, and, in turn, passing prospective medallists on to GB Boxing. The organisation is a member of AIBA and EUBC, the World and European governing bodies respectively.

England Boxing has a robust strategy and funding plan up until 2022, and is in the final stages of producing its next four-year strategy. The governing body is going through rapid change, and up until the pandemic, the sport had been experiencing growth in both competitive and recreational boxing.

England Boxing's mission is to protect, promote and support amateur boxing in England at all levels. Alongside delivering community programmes and activity in inner cities and local communities, the sport also has a significant record in being successful in securing medals at international championships.

To help continue that success, the Talent Department is seeking to create a more stable administrative base which will focus on strengthening communications with boxers, clubs and coaches and putting long term development plans in place.

England Boxing is seeking to employ an Administration Assistant to manage the data around the Talent Programme and cover administrative duties, as outlined in the job description and person specification below.

The role is based at the England Boxing head office at the English Institute of Sport in Sheffield and is a full-time and permanent position.
