

VOLUNTARY ROLES – CLUBS, MEMBERSHIP AND DEVELOPMENT SUB-COMMITTEE

Introduction

England Boxing is seeking to recruit volunteers with the skills, knowledge and experience to support and drive the sport through our Clubs, Membership and Development Sub-committee.

The sub-committee will meet a minimum of four times per year, it is a requirement that committee members attend at least three of the four meetings. The sub-committee reports directly to the England Boxing Board and is chaired by England Boxing director Amy Pu.

Applicants from both the England Boxing membership and the wider community are encouraged.

Sub-committee scope

The purpose of the Club, Membership and Development sub-committee is to:

- Promote the recreational and competitive development of amateur boxing. To take ownership of the development and participation aspects of the England Boxing Strategy and support the NGB operational staff in its delivery
- Make recommendations to the Board with regards to clubs and membership
- Monitor and assist in the development of development programmes of England Boxing
- Act to support, promote and develop boxing in clubs, schools, colleges and universities
- Act to support England Boxing and the clubs in their aim to provide a stimulating environment for their members, taking particular note of equity, disability, female and welfare issues.
- Work alongside the other sub-committees to make recommendations as appropriate

- Establish a focus on young people in the sport and actively and formally seek the views of boxers, athletes and young people involved in the sport.

This is a voluntary, unpaid position, but reasonable out-of-pocket expenses will be reimbursed for travel to meetings, etc, although meetings generally take place online via Zoom or Microsoft Teams.

To apply

Send a CV (including contact details) and expression of interest, detailing the relevant skills, knowledge and experience you have in relation to the sub-committee subject matters to: happlications@englandboxing.org
