

COMMUNITY BOXING APPRENTICESHIP FAQs

Q. How many hours will I be expected to work during the week?

A. The Community Boxing Apprenticeship is a full-time position for 15 months that will see you work 35 hours per week which includes 7hr of learning time as part of the level 3 qualification.

Q. What qualification will I gain through the apprenticeship?

A. The apprenticeship includes the completion of a Community Sport and Health Officer (Level 3) qualification.

Q. What will be provided in terms of career opportunities post apprenticeship?

A. Our apprenticeship programme includes career progression opportunities throughout the 15-month period including career fairs, opening up opportunities with sports sector employers etc.

Q. Will I be expected to work from the England Boxing office in Sheffield?

A. Our apprentices will primarily work from home or at a local boxing club. There will be meetings/training opportunities that will be based at England Boxing's office in Sheffield throughout the term of the apprenticeship.

Q. What is the salary?

A. Our apprentices will be paid above the national apprenticeship wage (currently £4.81 per hour) and below the national minimum wage (which varies dependant on age) for the first 12 months, rising to above the national minimum wage for the final 3-months.

Q. Will I get the opportunity to gain any additional qualifications during the apprenticeship?

A. Yes, you will undertake the England Boxing Level 1 coach award and will also be provided with other training opportunities.